TechTol Imaging Gets Plugged-In

TOLEDO, OH – Rocket Ventures is pleased to announce that its client company, Toledo-based 3-D rotational imaging company TechTol Imaging, LLC will be featured on the WGTE Public Media program Plugged-In on Wednesday, December 17. Plugged-In is a monthly series that explores the latest innovations in technology and research in Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan.

TechTol's patented Imaging Capturing System, which can take an image of any object and make a 360 view, will be prominently featured during the episode. TechTol has been working with Rocket Ventures and Launch, programs of the Regional Growth Partnership, who have been assisting them with business development, marketing plans and growth initiatives.

"The TechTol team's entrepreneurial spirit and drive is awe-inspiring," said Joanne Poe Abbott, business development manager. "It's amazing to see their dream of providing Internet users with a high-quality, low-cost 3-D image come to fruition and I'm excited for WGTE's viewers to see a glimpse into the very-near future."

"Plugged-In is always on the lookout for concepts that help viewers capture a peek at what the future will be like. TechTol is a forward-thinking company, and their story can educate people about innovative 3-D technology and its applications," said Darren LaShelle, director of TV broadcast service for WGTE Public Media.

TechTol's featured episode will premiere at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, December 17 on WGTE, Toledo Channel 30 with repeating episodes throughout the month of December.
